

Webinar on The Business Case for Including Human Rights to Sanitation

Tuesday 10th November

Title: How the AfDB can support the growth and scaling up of sanitation sector businesses, particularly for provision for the poor and marginalised communities

Author: Francis Daniel BOUGAIRE, Manager Water Coordination and Partnerships - AHWS Department - African Development Bank

The Challenges of Sanitation in Africa

4 Key NGOR Commitments relevant for the Growth & Scaling up of sanitation sector businesses

The political and institutional framework in Africa

- The Human Rights to Drinking Water and Sanitation
- The key African commitments for prioritizing and supporting the sanitation efforts of RMCs are:
 - ✓ The eThekweni Commitments on Sanitation (2008)
 - ✓ AfricaSan: Transforming Sanitation in Africa whose 3rd edition in 2015 led to the adoption of the NGOR Declaration on Sanitation and Hygiene
 - ✓ The Addis Ababa Agenda for Action (AAAA) as a global post-2015 development funding framework

AfDB's Response: calls for Partnerships

1. The Bank's 10 years Strategy 2013-2022 & the Five Goals - "High 5's"
2. The New Policy on Water: Water Security and Sanitation
3. The Bank's Water and Sanitation operations
4. The Africa Urban Sanitation Investment Fund (AUSIF)

Prospects for the Bank's Support

- Provide high level support for Sanitation and Hygiene
- Support RMCs in the implementation of the NGOR Commitments
- Build strategic alliance with AMCOW

- Partner with governments, private sector and other stakeholders to drive sanitation and hygiene access for the poorest
- Develop and document innovative sanitation and hygiene products and services
- Coordinate through a continental private sector network for sanitation in the continent
